President's Welcome

Western has a long tradition of excellence in athletics. It is a tradition made possible by talented and dedicated coaches, by student-athletes who are committed to excellence and by loyal supporters who believe in the important benefits of intercollegiate athletics.

At Western we are proud of the fact that "we make champions out of thin air." Last year there were many outstanding performances by Western student-athletes and teams. As a whole, Western State has been ranked in the Top 25 of the Division II National Directors' Cup Contest each of the 13 years of the contest.

While we are proud of the accomplishments and efforts of our athletes, teams and coaches, we also believe that the development of champions reaches far wider and deeper than contests won and lost.

In addition to being highly competitive NCAA II participants and successful students, Western's student-athletes are involved in many other campus activities. Their participation includes activities such as residence life staff, student government, theatre and new student orientation. Clearly, student-athletes at Western are an integral part of campus life and represent the values of citizenship and community that our college so strongly supports and encourages.

Intercollegiate athletics helps to instill and reinforce a strong work ethic, accountability, and the importance of community. At Western our coaches and athletes represent the very best of what college athletics, in its essence, provides. As supporters of Western State College athletics you help make it all possible.

On behalf of the coaches, athletic staff, and the student-athletes I thank you for your commitment to Western and for your support of intercollegiate athletics.

Facilities

Paul Wright Gym

Paul Wright Gym has been a work in progress since the initial building was built in 1951. Today the gym is known as one of the loudest in the region. At 7,723 feet, Wright Gym is the Highest Collegiate Gym in the World.

In 2007-08 school year, a brand new roof, floor and baskets were added.

In 2005, brand new bleaches were added to the lower section of the gym.

The current swimming pool joined the gym in 1960 and in 1965 the wrestling room was added to the east side of the gym. The biggest change of all came in 1998 as a 40,000 square-foot renovation and addition was completed. The renovation included a new 2,500 square-foot weight room with 5,000 pounds of free weights and also a locker facility for visiting teams. New locker facilities were added for both the general student population and men's and women's athletic teams.

The Tracy Borah Mountaineer Sports Hall of Fame room was also added during the renovation. The room features a meeting room, trophy cases and the Hall of Fame. Also added was a new training room that features whirlpool baths, five taping tables and a separate examination room. Volleyball and women's basketball also received new lockerrooms and team rooms. Upstairs, six classrooms were added that enabled the Exercise and Sport Science department to conduct all of its classes in one area.

Paul Wright Gym is named after the one of Western State's early coaches and leaders. Instrumental in getting skiing organized as an NCAA sports, Wright taught and coached at Western for 38 years. He also served the Gunnison Community as mayor, judge, board member and Rotarian.

Mountaineer Bowl

The Western State Mountaineers displayed Mountaineer Bowl for the first time in 1948. Western immediately fell in love with the new playing field as they won that first game 20-0 over Colorado School of Mines.

Today, Mountaineer Bowl ranks as the highest collegiate football field in the world at 7,750 feet. One of the best settings for a collegiate football game or track meet in America, the Bowl can hold 4,000 fans.

Mountaineer Bowl features a pair of press boxes - one for game-day staff and one for radio and working media.

The Bowl also features an official collegiate track, which was redone in 2006.

Mountaineer Bowl is also home to both Gunnison High School football and track and field.

In 2005, the Bowl received a brand new eight lane track and a new scoreboard (including a messageboard system and a new audio system).

Western State College would like to thank Dr. Missy Chamberland for donating the red paint used to paint the field at all home football games.

Thank you for your continued support of Mountaineer Athletics. Dr. Chamberland.

Western State College - Gunnison, Colo.

Western State College of Colorado in Gunnison, Colorado, was founded in 1901 and was the first college on Colorado's Western Slope. Western has an enrollment of about 2500 students, and offers Bachelor's degrees in over 20 different majors.

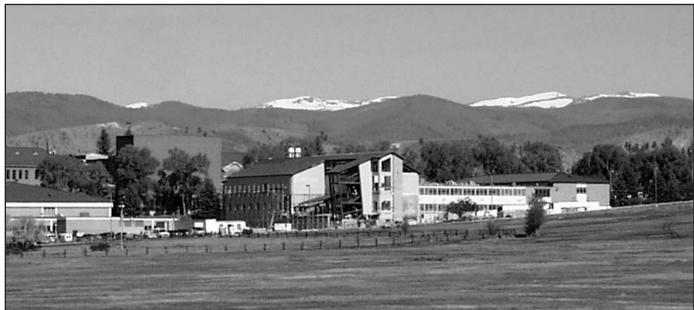

At Western State College of Colorado, we take genuine pride in our ability to work one on one with our students. We get to know each student and help each reach his or her highest level. At Western, students have a true, one-on-one relationship with us- our students, our faculty and our town.

The professors at Western State College of Colorado are among the most qualified faculty teaching undergraduate courses in Colorado. Our student faculty ratio is 18 to 1, and our students always notice how closely their professors work with them. At Western, students have opportunities for direct, hands on involvement in their major field of study from the beginning of their education here, not just during the junior and senior year.

Western is one of the most affordable colleges in the state and in the nation. Our tuition is less than the national average tuition for public colleges of our size and selectivity. Western awards more grants on average than our peer institutions. Finally, our students graduate with less total student loans than the national average. Our combination of price and financial aid make us one of the most affordable college choices a student can make.

Western offers one of the safest campuses in the state. Our beautiful small town location and the sense of community on our campus bring about a very low incidence of criminal occurrences. Students feel a high level of personal responsibility here because they are part of the total community in the Gunnison Valley.

Western State College - Gunnison, Colo.

Western is ideally located in the heart of the Colorado Rocky Mountains. The mountains and communities that surround Western State College provide an outdoor classroom just waiting to be discovered. Our academic programs make the most of the Gunnison Valley environment. Our students know the true meaning of a "hands-on" education! Students here are challenged, and are able to make the most of themselves and their college education.

Western State College students also love the college because it is fun! Crested Butte Mountain Resort is less than an hour from campus, and so is the Monarch Ski and Snowboarding area. Both areas offer special discounted season passes for Western students. For the fishermen, Fly Rod and Reel Magazine listed Western State College as the third best college in the country for college students who love to fish. For the climbers, there are spectacular granite faces just minutes from campus that are perfect for bouldering and pitch climbing.

There are also a great number of activities on campus for every student to enjoy. From involvement in a musical production, or a radio or television show, to writing for the school newspaper or being elected to the Student Government Association, Western students are always able to get involved in fun and fulfilling activities on campus

Western State College of Colorado has one the most successful NCAA Division II sports programs in the country. The Mountaineers finished 15th in the 2006-07 Director's cup.

JAY HELMAN

President

Jay Helman came to Western in 1989 as Assistant Professor in Kinesiology and Head Men's Basketball Coach. Three years later, in addition to his coaching and faculty responsibilities, he was named Chair of the Department of Kinesiology and Recreation. He was named Vice President for Academic Affairs in 1996 and, in February of 2002, became Western's 13th President.

His B.A. degree in English Literature is from Santa Clara University in California. He also earned an M.A. in Psychology from California State University at Sonoma, and a Ph.D. in Exercise and Sport Science from The Pennsylvania State University in 1988.

Dr. Helman was named President at a pivotal moment in Western State College's more than a century of service to Colorado and the nation. He has guided Western through trying times, dealing with fiscal issues, potential governance changes and the need to attract more students. In addition, he has worked hard to communicate effectively with Colorado legislators, area and national opinion leaders and with area residents about the College's challenges and goals.

Evidence of his leadership is seen in increasing enrollment, the passage of a bill that made Western independent of the three-college system of which it has been a part for many years, and optimism across the campus about the College's future. Despite a state-wide economic slump, Western continues to set fund-raising goals. The College was highly praised during a recent accreditation visit by a team of educators making up a North Central Association team who stated unequivocally their belief in the overall strength of Western and its future.

Dr. Helman has written a number of articles for academic publications and made presentations to a variety of organizations.

During his five-year tenure as Head Basketball Coach he was honored twice as Coach of the Year, had two teams qualify for post-season national tournaments and had an excellent graduation rate of student-athletes.

Dr. Waggoner is beginning his 15th year as Athletic Director at Western State College of Colorado

He received his B.A. and M.A. from WSC in 1980 and 1981 respectively. He received his Ed. D. from the University of Northern Colorado in 1994.

Under his guidance, the college has generated numerous special events to promote interest in Mountaineer athletics and to attract financial support from alumni, friends and corporate partners.

Over $14 million has been raised privately for Mountaineer Athletics in the past 14 years and each of the past four years have produced annual revenues and pledges that exceed $1 Million. Private/external/enterprise generated revenues make up 48% of the total WSC athletic budget. The average in the NCAA D-II is 24%. Additionally, over $6 Million in athletic facility improvements have been made for Mountaineer Athletics in the past 14 years from public and private sources.

In the past 14 years, Western State College athletic teams have accomplished the following:

10 NCAA II National Championship teams

72 NCAA II National "Top 10" team finishes

25 Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Championship teams

13 consecutive "Top 25" finishes in the Directors' Cup standings and one of two current NCAA Division II schools to accomplish this feat.

Legacy of a Legend

Tracy Borah Mountaineer Sports Hall of Fame Room

he Legacy of a Legend campaign, which began more than two years earlier, came to fruition on Sept. 11, 1999 with the grand opening of the Tracy Borah Mountaineer Sports Hall of Fame Room. Located in the Paul Wright Gymnasium, the room is a place to celebrate the history and heritage of Western State College athletics. The campaign also was designed to give a scholarship to one wrestler each year. The 2008-09 recipient of this scholarship is Charlie Pipher.

Many contributed significantly to make the Tracy Borah Mountaineer Sports Hall of Fame Room and Memorial Scholarship a reality. What we have done will have a permanent and transforming impact on Mountaineer Athletics. However, this is not an end but a beginning. This project also has shown us what tremendous opportunities lie ahead. There will always be room at our table for others who have a devotion to Western, the heart to contribute without reservation, and the dream to further elevate Mountaineer athletics - which is woven into the fabric of so many of our lives.

If you have items that should be considered for display in the Hall of Fame, now or in the future, please call (970) 943-2079.

If you are interested in donating to either the Hall of Fame room or the Tracy Borah Memorial Wrestling Scholarship, please call Greg Waggoner at 943-2079.

Mountaineer Sports Hall of Fame 2008 Inductees

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE: According to its charter, the Hall of Fame has been organized to "promote the enduring values of a thriving athletic program by identifying and recognizing those persons who deserve special acclaim for their contributions to Western State College athletics." O. Kay Dalton, took Western State football to an elite level during his tenure as head coach. Dalton led the Mountaineers from 1961 to 1965 and during those years his teams were affectionately known as "The Dalton Gang". During his first two years, Dalton worked on fine tuning his football machine and the Mountaineers came away with 4-5 and 5-4 season. In 1963, the Mountaineers took over as one of the top programs in the country. The Mountaineers went 8-1 overall and 4-0 in RMAC play to claim the program's second conference title ever. Western's lone setback in 1963 was to Arizona State. The 1964 team could go down as the best ever in Western State history. Western won its second straight RMAC title with a perfect 3-0 conference title. It also finished the regular season with a 9-0 record. The result was a trip to the Mineral Bowl. The Mineral Bowl was known as the Small College National Championship and the Mountaineers just missed out on a National Title with a 14-13 setback to North Dakota State. In 1965, the Mountaineers continued to roll, winning its third straight RMAC Championship and finishing the season with a 7-1 overall record. The lone setback in 1965 was a 14-7 setback to Weber State. During the 1963, 1964 and 1965 campaigns, the three losses came by a total of 15 points. Dalton left Western following the 1965 season to coach in the Canadian Football League. During Dalton's five years, the Mountaineers v three RMAC Championships, went 33-12 overall and 15-5 in RMAC play. Dalton ranks fourth all-time at Western State in wins with 33.

James Hahn, is the most successful Women's Basketball Coach in Western State history. After taking over the program in 1982-83, the Mountaineers went through three rebuilding years before bursting on the scene in 1985-86 and 1986-87. The 1985-86 team went 18-11 overall and 12-4 in RMAC play. The Mountaineers closed out the regular season by winning 10 of 11 games. In the NAIA District VII Playoffs, Western knocked off Adams State and Southern Utah before falling to Fort Lewis. The 1986-87 team secured the second RMAC Championship in program history with a 22-7 overall record and a 12-2 mark in RMAC play. During one stretch during the season, the Mountaineers won 12 straight games and then defeated Southern Colorado and Western New Mexico to win the NAIA District VII Playoffs before falling to Fresno Pacific in the NAIA Bi-District Playoffs. For his career, Hahn won a program best 113 games and seven straight seasons of double-digit wins.

Franklin Jefferson, made history at Western State, becoming the first African-American student-athlete on the football and track and field teams. Jefferson played three years (1964-66) under head coach O. Kay Dalton. During the 1964 season, Jefferson played defense, was the kicker and also returned punts and kickoffs. Also in 1964, Jefferson impressed on the track, winning several medals in the 100, 200 and 4 x 400 relay. In 1965, Jefferson was moved to the offensive side of the ball and the move was a huge success. Jefferson led the team in rushing, scoring and was second in total offense and punt return yards. Following the season, Jefferson was named the conference's Running Back of the Year. During his junior year, Jefferson never lost a yard while carrying the ball. Going in his senior season of 1966, Jefferson drew national attention - being named the Player to Watch out of the conference by Sports Illustrated. Jefferson didn't disappoint as he was again named the Running Back of the Year. Following his senior season, Jefferson was invited to tryout by several NFL teams, but when it was discovered that he had a chipped bone in his neck - Jefferson decided to stop playing and avoid the risk of being paralyzed. During his three years at Western State, Jefferson and the Mountaineers went 31-3.

Ermelinda Shehu, came to Western State from Tirana, Albania in the Spring of 1995. A knee injury kept her out of the competition that year, but from 1996 to 1999, Shehu left her mark as one of the greatest track and field athletes ever to compete for Western State. Excelling in the Triple Jump and Long Jump, Shehu earned four NCAA Division II National Championships. Shehu won the Indoor National Championship in 1996 and 1997 and the Outdoor National Championship in the Triple Jump in 1996 and 1997. Combining both the Triple Jump and Long Jump, Shehu earned nine NCAA Division II All-American honors. Shehu was a dominant force when it came to the RMAC Championships. During her career, Shehu won 21 RMAC Championships and still holds the RMAC Indoor Championship record in the Triple Jump with a leap of 40-03.75 in 1997. As of her induction, Shehu holds the Western State record for the Indoor Triple Jump (42-07.50), Indoor Long Jump (19-06.50), Indoor 60 (7.66), Outdoor 100 (11.78) and Outdoor 200 (24.42).

Bucky Broomhall, Broomhall turned his time as a Western State skier into an impressive ski coaching career. Broomhall skied at Western from 1955-59 and took seventh in Cross Country as a senior and also finished in the Top 20 in Ski Jumping. ^{*} Denotes RMAC Conference Game

Mikę Moskowitz Head Coach Second Year 10-17

Mike Moskowitz begins his second year as the Western State's men's basketball head coach continuing to build the Mountaineers to greater promise in one of the best Division II basketball conferences nationally.

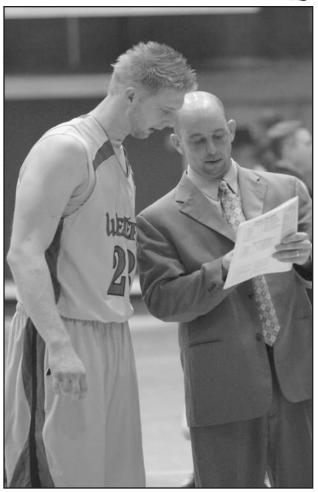

Moskowitz brings a wealth of knowledge and eperience from both the international and collegiate level and was officially named head coach of the Mountaineers on April 14, 2008.

During his first season on the Gunnison Campus, Moskowitz and his staff say many positives and negatives in their 10-17 campaign. Western stayed competitive in despite of their lack of experience, losing seven games by an average of five points or less. Western's defense was the gule within their success; it held opponents to 70 points per game which ranked them fourth in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference. Western's total of eight RMAC wins on the 2007-08 season was the most in nearly a decade.

Entering into the 2008-09 season, Western is excited about the opportunity to showcase their progress. On this year's roster there are five seniors, five juniors, four sophomores and two freshman. With more experience, a laid foundation and optimistic outlook, Western is anxious about the journey.

Prior to arriving in Gunnison, Moskowitz served as an assistant at two fellow RMAC institutions. In 2004, he was named the head coach at Si Tanka University where he led a struggling Eagles program into the conference tournament. In 2005, he was named an assistant on Team USA that competed in Israel.

With nearly ten years of experience in the Rocky Mountain region, his familiarity with high school and junior college coaches has made him one of the top recruiters in the region. Moskowitz believes in instilling strong characters and passionate individuals into his program whose personal goals are out weighted by those of the team's accomplishments.

Moskowitz was born Dec. 9, 1973 and graduated from Osbourn High School in Manassas, Va. He is married to the former Katie Meek, who was previously the head volleyball coach at Adams State College and is currently the assistant with the volleyball program here at Western. They are proud parents of Myles (4) and Elliot (2).

First Year

Daniel Trujillo enters his second season as the Assistant Men's Basketball Coach at Western State.

Trujillo comes to Western after spending the 2006-07 season as an assistant at Otero Junior College. Prior to that, Trujillo served as an assistant at Taos (N.M.) High School for two seasons and was an assistant at RMAC foe New Mexico Highlands during the 2003-04 season.

Trujillo grew up in Taos, N.M. and graduated from Taos High School in 1998. As a prep athlete, Trujillo competed in basketball, cross country and track and field and earned All-District and All-State honors in basketball.

Trujillo went on to play basketball at Adams State and was a starter all four years and earned All-Conference honors as a junior and senior and graduated with a degree in Business Administration in 2002.

Kelly Meek enters his first year as an Assistant Coach for the Western State Men's Basketball team. He plans on joining his son-in-law, head coach Mike Moskowitz for the 2008-09 season.

Meek was the former Head Coach for the boy's basketball team at Steamboat Springs High School. He retired after 36 years of coaching, which the past 34 years he spent at Steamboat Springs HS.

Meek leaves as one of the most successful coaches in Colorado history.

During Meek's time in Steamboat Springs, the Sailors won 44 league, district or regional championships and 20 preseason tournament championships.

Meek's teams have won the Western Slope League championship eight of the past 11 years, including three undefeated league campaigns in the past four years. In that span, the Sailors won 30 consecutive league games, a school and league record.

Meek's 544 wins place him third all-time among high school boys coaches in Colorado and second all-time among coaches at one school.

John McCarthy

Assistant Coach

11th Year

Ryan Keefe
Manager
Second Year

John McCarthy is in his 17th year at Western.

McCarthy, a teacher at Gunnison High School, spent nine years as the head basketball coach at Battle Mountain High before moving to Gunnison.

McCarthy left as the Huskies' all-time winningest coach.

McCarthy is married to Melanie Torpey, a teacher at Gunnison Elementary School.

Ryan Keefe is entering his second year as a manager for the WSC Men's Basketball team.

Keefe is responsible for game preparation, practice and provides a variety of care and maintenance tasks related to the Men's Basketball team.

Keefe is studying Business Administration at Western.

Expectations set high for Men's Basketball

In his second year as head men's basketball coach, Mike Moskowitz believes that consistency is what will drive his team to success.

"We just want to be a consistent team that plays hard with enthusiasm," Moskowitz said. "We want to enjoy the struggle of getting better."

In April of last season,
Moskowitz had the interim title removed and became the full-time head coach of the Mountaineers.
Coming off a season in which the team went 10-17 (8-11 RMAC), Moskowitz believes this year's squad has what it takes to improve.

"We are deeper and have a lot more talent," Moskowitz said. "We have a lot more game playing experience as well."

Some of that experience comes from returning starters, senior guards Justin Avalos and Jeremy Brooks. Avalos averaged 7.5 points per game and 1.1 steals last year. Brooks was also an important factor to the team's overall success scoring 10 points per game and leading the team in free throw attempts with 167.

However, the production on the floor is not the only thing these and other seniors will provide this season.

"We have five seniors and they all have taken active leadership roles," Moskowitz said. "Some do it vocally, some do it by example."

Because Moskowitz was only an interim head coach last year, this will technically be his first season as the official head coach of the Mountaineers. But that doesn't mean the expectations haven't changed.

"Expectations are basically what I place on myself," Moskowitz said. "This is just the second year in the process."

Guards

Leading the Mountaineers at point will be senior Jeremy Brooks. Brooks was the second leading scorer last season (10.0 per-game) and had 51 assists and 27 steals.

Senior Justin Avalos also gives Western experience at the guard position. Avalos appeared in all 27 games and averaged 7.5 points-per-game. Avalos also had 30 steals and 22 assists last season.

Vince Alvarado, a transfer from Yavapai Community College, will also be battling for time at the point.

games, while McCoy played in two games as a true-freshman.

Wings

New faces will fulfill the wing position for the Mountaineers this season.

With six transfers and one player straight from high school, the Mountaineers are looking to see variety and depth at the wing position.

Cameron Burney and Allen McFarland, transfered from Alaska-Anchorage, where they helped take the Seawolves to a NCAA Semifinal game.

Brandon Gentry, a transfer from Yavapai College, averaged 10.9 points, 6.0 rebounds, 3.4 assists and 1.5 steals per game.

Transfers Brandon Slabach, Martin Graham, Nathan Kirwan and high school standout Alex Hart will also battle for time.

Forwards

Returners Steve Zehnder and Troy McCoy will split time at forward, battling with the big's and running the floor.

Zehnder appeared in 15

Posts

The average height for the Western posts is 6-7. With two returners and one transfer, the Mountaineers are looking to dominate the posts in conference action.

Leading the way at the post position is senior Clayton Spencer. Spencer appeared in 23 games and averaged 3.2 points and 3.2 rebounds a game.

Sophomore Daniel Hobin averaged 3.1 points and 2.0 rebounds in 24 games. Hobin recorded six blocks and five steals.

Transfer Mike Bogar, played last season at Lamar Community College, where he averaged 8.3 points and 6.5 rebounds.

These big men are expected to push around the competition on the block.

Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference

The Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference is a 14-team conference that has members in Colorado, Kansas. New Mexico and Nebraska.

The conference is broken up into an East Division (Chadron State, Colorado Christian, Colorado School of Mines, UC-Colorado Springs, Metropolitan State, Regis and Nebraska-Kearney) and a West Division (Adams State, CSU-Pueblo, Fort Lewis, Mesa State, New Mexico Highlands, Western New Mexico and Western State) for most major core sports.

For football the conference competes with nine teams (Adams State, Chadron State, Colorado School of Mines, Fort Lewis, Mesa State, Nebraska-Kearney, New Mexico Highlands, Western New Mexico and Western State).

The conference was first called the Colorado Faculty Athletic Conference in 1909 and had four charter members: University of Colorado, Colorado A&M (now Colorado State), Colorado College and Colorado School of Mines. The conference was re-named the Rocky Mountain Faculty Athletic Conference in 1910 and in 1924 Western State and Northern Colorado joined the conference.

In 1967 the name of the conference was officially changed to the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference and in 1992 the conference became an official member of the NCAA Division II.

In July of 1997, UC-Colorado Springs was added and in 2006, Fort Hays moved out of the conference and Western New Mexico joined the league.

The RMAC offices are housed in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Robertson earns Champion, Leadership and Responsibility Scholarship recipient

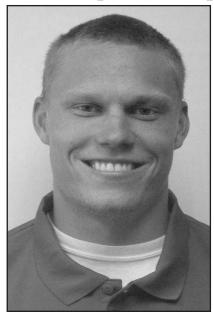

Western State senior football player Tyler Robertson has been named the recipient of the Champion Leadership and Responsibility Scholarship presented by Colorado Beverage Distributing, Inc.

The scholarship is designed to develop and recognize championship individuals that are outstanding athletes, outstanding students and leaders among their peers that demonstrate responsibility in all dimensions. The award is a $2,500 scholarship.

"Tyler Robertson is an outstanding young man," Western State Athletic Director Greg Waggoner said. "We are confident that he will represent this scholarship and all that it stands for very well. We look forward to continuing to obtain the funding for this very valuable leadership program, which represents all that Western State College student-athletes are all about."

Robertson is a wide receiver for the Western State football team. In 2007 he appeared in nine games, rushed for 88 yards on 36 attempts for two touchdowns. He also threw the ball for 323 yards for one touchdown.

The Denver, Colo., native has a 3.78 GPA in Exercise and Sport Science. He plans on becoming a teacher after he graduates.

Since coming to Western as a freshman, Robertson has been involved in the football program and Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC).

Through his extracurricular activities, Robertson has been involved in emergency deer feeding, community clean-up, make-a-wish foundation, and attends other WSC athletic events.

"Robertson is a leader and a hard worker," WSC Head Football Coach Pat Stewart said. "He will be a big contributor to the success that our football program has on the offensive end this year." Robertson's overall WSC Career stats include 323 passing yards for one touchdown, 88 rushing yards on 36 attempts for two touchdowns and recorded 42 tackles.

The inaugural recipient in 2007 was Western State football player Jordan Gage.
